Jan Crkovsky

has successfully participated in Advanced Media course, a 10-day (21st-31st March 2025) intensive program focused on media production and creative storytelling. The program covered topics including photography, editing, film production, screenplay writing, communication, teamwork, and videography.

Participants collaborated on a 48-hour short film challenge, creating Perfectly Imperfect. Additional workshops explored live-streaming, interviews, and social media strategies. The program also featured guest speakers from the media industry, providing valuable insights into professional practices.
